WHO WE ARE.

PLANNING

Seeking to deliver on our promise to be our customer's partner, we focus our efforts not just on a project's success, but on our customer's success. With that aim, we develop plans that optimize our in-house capabilities and long term partnerships, while providing a one stop solution for your project needs.

EXECUTION

Bring us your sketches and we will produce your sheet metal products: We provide a variety of custom and standard products
For example; custom products, coping, siding, roofing, door pans, and more

SUPPORT

Our customers are our first priority. It is our objective at Seattle Metals to work with and for our customers to best serve their sheet metal needs. We remain flexible not fixed and love providing expedited results for our customers. We look forward to working with you on your future projects.

PEOPLE IN OUR PURPOSE

HUMILITY THAT PUTS OTHERS FIRST

//

Our company sees the people behind every contract and every order, and seeks to enrich the lives of the people we work with. We value humility and putting other people first in all we do. If you're not in it to serve you won't feel at home at Seattle Metals.

EXCELLENCE IN OUR PRODUCTS

HARD WORK THAT IS RESULTS DRIVEN

//

We understand that a reputation is built over time and can be ruined overnight. We want our customers to reinforce their reputation of quality and timeliness with Seattle Metals. We commit to exceed people's expectations with hard work and continual improvement. At Seattle Metals, excellence is not simply a profit tool. It is a way of life.

INTEGRITY IN OUR PRACTICE

HONESTY THAT GAINS PEOPLE'S TRUST

//

We work with a focus on long-term, sustainable results and seek to cultivate trustworthy and lasting relationships with all the people we work with. Honesty, transparency, and authenticity are principles that we hold to and operate under.

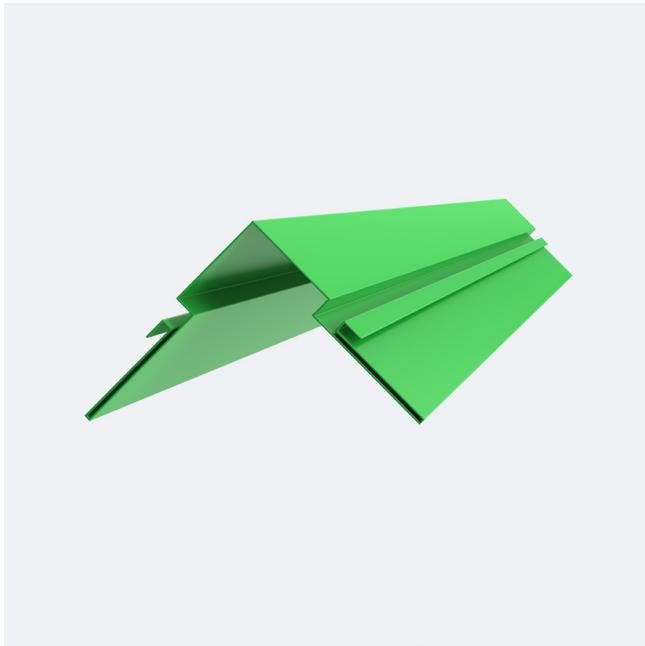

OUR PROMISE

//

We promise to be your trustworthy partner in our mutual success. We want our customer's to receive the kind of care and attention a partner would have. That is our approach. We succeed when they succeed. We win when they win. We promise to act like a partner, and we seek customers who value a partner relationship.
